

Antique Rug Studio

Afshar #17394

Description

The large Afshar tribe of southeast Persia weaves an extraordinary range of designs and rug types. This attractive bag from around 1900 has an ivory field closely patterned with geometrically stylized roses and a surrounding burnt orange angular undulating vine border. This is a totally genuine tribal artifact used in seasonal migrations.

Stock ID:	#17394
General Rug Type:	Persian Tribal
Specific Rug Type:	Afshar
Circa:	1900
Color:	Ivory
Origin:	Persia
Material:	Wool
Weave:	Pile - Knotted
Shape:	Rectangle
Width:	2' 8" (81.28 cm)
Length:	2' 8" (81.28 cm)

