

Antique Rug Studio

Kurdish #22860

Description

A field pattern of colorful diamonds, each enclosing a cross with hooks motif, almost totally covers the corroded black ground of this c. 1860 Suj Bulak carpet from Kurdistan in northwest Persia. The red border of rosettes, with emphatic red and ivory running dog reciprocal minors, makes the Suj Bulak attribution secure. Suj Bulaks are among the most desirable of Kurdish village weaving.

Stock ID:	#22860
General Rug Type:	Persian Informal
Specific Rug Type:	Kurdish
Circa:	1860
Color:	Red
Origin:	Persia
Width:	4' 2" (127 cm)
Length:	8' 10" (269.24 cm)

